Policy Update

21st CCLC RFP Recommendations

The passing of the Every Student Succeeds ACT (ESSA) provides the Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) an opportunity to revise its 21st Century Community Learning Centers (CCLC) process.

We need you to tell your policymakers that the RFP needs to be released in order to time the grant start date as much as possible with the start of the fiscal year. Timing the RFP this way allows for schools and partners to engage in shared planning before the start of school, leading to stronger programs and stronger partnerships. It also means that there will not be a gap in programs or services, and that grantees do not need to lay off staff. Click on this link to share this message with legislators asking them to tell ISBE to release the RFP. You can also use this form letter to send a message to ISBE.

New CCDF FAQs Post

The Child Care and Development Fund (CCDF) is the primary federal funding source devoted to improving the quality of care for all children and to helping low-income families obtain child care. The final rule was finalized on September 30th and includes several new provisions. To provide clarity to the reauthorization and new regulation, the Office of Child Care has published a frequently asked questions page that is organized by key topic areas. To access the site, click here.

Upcoming Events

Economic Inequality and School Performance

Continuing Ed. is a yearlong, statewide series working with parents, schools, and communities in Chicago, Decatur, Elgin, and southern Illinois to move the conversation about public education back to parents. Join them on Friday, January 20, 2017, from 6:30 p.m. through 8:30 p.m. for an evening dedicated to talking about the relationship between poverty and education. This event will be held at the Kelly High School library, located at 4136 South California, Chicago, IL. For more information or to register, click here.

SEL: Feedback and Communications Insights from the Field

The Wallace Foundation has released its market research findings on Policymakers, K-12 Public School Leaders, and Afterschool Leaders opinions on social and emotional learning (SEL). Research indicates that SEL is a familiar term that is well received across stakeholder groups when framed as a concept that speaks to “gains” for children. However, despite agreement that it should be a priority, there is still concern from the field regarding adequate training being available and from parents regarding whether school/afterschool are overstepping their bounds.
