Policy Updates

ISBE Board Meeting & Budget Hearing

The Illinois State Board of Education met on November 16, 2018 for its monthly meeting and budget hearing. At the board meeting, there was public comment about reaching funding adequacy targets, the lack of public input in ISBE decisions, and issues with special education in Chicago. The Board heard a presentation about strategic planning in North Chicago. The Board was also updated on the inquiry into special education at CPS. To see the board packet, click here.

ISBE's third budget hearing this year followed the Board meeting. At the Board hearing, advocates testified about the importance of alternative school, agricultural programs, ELL, and dual credit programs. ACT Now members Brighton Park Neighborhood Council, the YMCA of Metropolitan Chicago, Youth Guidance, and After School Matters all testified about the importance of afterschool. ACT Now members advocated for funding for afterschool programs, community schools, the Healthy Communities Investment Grant, and continuation of grants for the FY15 21st Century cohort. We Go Together for Kids/West Chicago Elementary District 33 and Skokie School District 69 also testified in support of community schools. To read ACT Now's full comments, click here.

The Role of SEL in Educational Equity

Social and Emotional Learning—or SEL—can help students develop key skills they'll need in and out of the classroom. But how can SEL support equity? AIR researcher Jameela Conway-Turner discusses how SEL can improve student outcomes and how districts and schools can use it in their equity initiatives to support all students. To read more, click here.

Education Assessment Finder

The RAND Education Assessment Finder is a web-based tool that provides information about assessments of K-12 students' interpersonal, intrapersonal, and higher-order cognitive competencies. Practitioners, researchers, and policymakers can use it to explore what assessments are available, what they are designed to measure, how they are administered, what demands they place on students and teachers, and what kinds of uses their scores support. Finding the Right SEL Assessment

One of the biggest obstacles to using data to inspire practice is simply the task of selecting and using an appropriate assessment. The CASEL Assessment Guide was created to help practitioners, especially school and district leaders and SEL teams, to select and use student SEL competency assessments.
