Illinois State Board of Education: August Board Meeting Recap

On August 19, 2020, the Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) met for its monthly meeting. For a copy of the Board materials and the meeting recording, click here. Susan Stanton, ACT Now Network Lead, provided public comment on the relationship between reopening schools and afterschool programs. To read ACT Now's sign on letter for this issue, click here. At the meeting, the Board clarified that for this school year school districts will only be reimbursed by USDA for those students that qualify for free and reduced price lunches and that previous flexibility to feed additional students will not be extended. The Board heard from a panel of superintendents about their reopening experiences. The superintendent in Springfield specifically called out the importance of working with afterschool programs, community-based organizations, and 21st Century Community Learning Centers in her presentation. ISBE will vote on the release of the After School Programs RFP in September, and this year non-district applicants will NOT have to serve 100 students in order to qualify. The Board also discussed that this year's budget hearings will all be held in October and be held virtually. For information about upcoming board meetings, click here.

Illinois State Board of Education: Priority Learning Standards for 2020-2021 School Year Released

On August 18, 2020, the Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) released its Priority Learning Standards for the 2020-2021 School Year. The standards include topics of: social emotional learning (SEL), English/Language Arts, English Language Learning, Mathematics, Science, Social Science, Fine Arts, and more. The standards are meant to be a starting point for collaborative planning and discourse in local school districts and emphasizes the nontraditional nature of the school year. The document also highlights the importance of these themes in relation to the ongoing public health crisis. To read the standards, click here.

Chicago Public Schools: Final Reopening Framework Issued

On August 18, 2020, Chicago Public Schools (CPS) issued its Final Reopening Framework for the 2020-2021 School Year. Students will learn remotely through the first quarter. This is in response to the CPS parent survey where the majority of parents said they would not send their children back to school or they were not sure if they would send their students back to school. Parents cited health concerns for these decisions. CPS will be issuing additional resources and guidance to help assist parents in this transition in the coming weeks. CPS also released its Remote Learning Guidance. CPS will have 6 hours of learning for each student each day with a combination of synchronous and asynchronous learning. CPS also has plans to ensure all students have a device and internet access. Students are encouraged to use their webcams and teachers are required to do so. The plan also includes a list of synchronous and asynchronous learning approved apps and extensions instructors can use. Additional guidance is forthcoming about how "non-teachers" fit into the reopening plan. The plan also includes a variety of SEL resources, lesson plans, and examples for how to incorporate SEL into daily activities.

Illinois Department of Public Health: Guidance for Pre-K-12 Schools and Day Care Programs and Support Materials Published

On August 18, 2020, the Illinois Department of Public Health (IDPH) released two pieces of guidance and support materials for educators, afterschool programs, and child care providers to adhere by. To access IDPH's Guidance for Pre-K-12 Schools and Day Care Programs for Addressing COVID-19, click here. IDPH also published a Decision Tree document for school and program administrators that clearly lays out the procedures for when students or staff test positive for COVID-19 or show COVID-19 symptoms. To review the Decision Tree for Symptomatic Individuals in Pre-K, K-12 Schools, and Day Care Programs, click here. For more information on both of these documents, click here.

Illinois Department of Children and Family Services: Restore Illinois Licensed Day Care Guidance and License Exempt School-Age Guidance Announced

On August 17, 2020, the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS) announced guidance for licensed day care providers and license-exempt providers looking to provide care for children and school-age youth. The guidance states the following:

- License exempt programs providing services for school-age children *may operate during remote learning days as determined by their local school district. However, no license exempt program is permitted to serve a school-age child during the school day if that child is enrolled in a school district that is requiring in-person instruction on that day.

Illinois State Board of Education: COVID-19 Response Resources

Last week, the Illinois State Board of Education (ISBE) shared an FAQ, developed by the Illinois Department of Public Health (IDPH), with some supplementary information to respond to questions the agency has received since the release of the Joint Transition Guidance for Starting the 2020-21 School Year. This week, ISBE is sharing with educators, community-based organizations (CBOs), afterschool providers, families and youth some resources in the case that communities see a spike in COVID-19 cases:

- Supportive guidance for local public health departments regarding how to use an “adaptive pause” for local schools and additional mitigation strategies based on local public health metrics.
- A memo to medical professionals describing how to determine when a student is medically unable to wear a face covering.

National Summer Learning Association: Summer Learning - A Bridge to Student Success and America’s Recovery, a COVID-19 PLAYBOOK

The National Summer Learning Association (NSLA) and its partners have developed a playbook for afterschool and expanded learning providers in order to help frame Out-of-School Time (OST) as being an integral support for youth and communities as we begin to recover from the pandemic. The playbook hosts a long-term, comprehensive, and sustainable framework for planning, collaborating, and executing evidence-based practices and partnerships for high-quality summer and OST opportunities. The playbook also includes resources, tools, and guidance from NSLA. To access this document, click here.
