Afterschool for Children and Teens

NEWSLETTER

Congratulations!

On March 8, 2022, the Million Girls Moonshot (MGM) initiative publicly announced its first group of the Moonshot Flight Crew. The 2022 Flight Crew features 16 remarkable youth from across the country. Motivated by their impactful STEM experiences beyond the classroom, these young leaders are currently working in their communities to break down stereotypes and spark their peers' curiosity in STEM. This talented group of youth are committed to leveraging afterschool and STEM learning to ensure girls everywhere have opportunities to not only envision themselves in the STEM field but become future role models.

ACT Now would like to congratulate Helena and Afua in particular for representing the state of Illinois in this inaugural Moonshot Flight Crew!

We are thrilled that you both will continue to advance afterschool STEM and look forward to supporting this exciting initiative.

Policy Updates

Federal Updates

FY22 Budget Update: More Funding for Afterschool!

Congress, after many months of discussion, appears to be moving forward with a FY22 budget bill, which totals $1.5 trillion. This budget would fund the federal government through September 30, 2022. Below, you will find some of budget line items we are following:

- $1.289 billion for 21st Century Community Learning Centers (21st CCLC), an increase of $30 million and an all-time high level of funding for this grant program. However, this increase is not sufficient to meet the increased demand for quality afterschool and summer learning programs, nor the increased costs associated with offering high quality afterschool and summer opportunities.

- $6.2 billion for the Child Care Development Block Grant (CCDBG)
- $75 million for Full-Service Community School. This is an increase of $45 million, but is significantly less than what was proposed in both the House and Senate.
- $17.5 billion for Title I funding to local education agencies. Afterschool and summer learning programs are an allowable use for this funding.
- $1.28 billion for Title IV Student Support and Academic Enrichment Grants. This funding goes to school districts to holistically support the needs of students. Allowable uses for the grant include support for afterschool STEM activities.
- $2.1 billion for Career, Technical Education (CTE), an increase of $61 million, to state education agencies. There is opportunity for community-based organizations to partner with school districts to leverage funding for workforce education or career readiness programming.
- Continued support for a Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) Initiative. The goal is to integrate “whole child” approaches to educational opportunities. Specifically, $82 million is allocated for grants for evidence-based, field-initiated innovations that address student social, emotional, and cognitive needs within the Education Innovation and Research program.
- $120 million for Project AWARE, which provides mental health resources for children and youth

State Updates

Illinois Invests in Supports to Grow the Bilingual Educator Pipeline

The Illinois State Board of Education \(ISBE\) has developed a new grant opportunity, for a total of $4 million, from federal COVID-19 relief in order to help support and grow the bilingual education pipeline in the state. The goal is to fill teacher vacancies as the state continues to navigate the educator workforce crisis. According to Chalkbeat Chicago, the grant will allow school districts to "pay for tuition for current teachers who have a bilingual endorsement but want to earn professional licensure and for current educators who want to earn a bilingual endorsement." Additionally, the state aims to support a group of bilingual teachers that are able to teach "longer than a five-year term term."
