Federal Policy Updates

U.S. Department of Agriculture: Federal Summer Meals Program Waivers Extension Announced

On August 31, 2020, the U.S. Department of Agriculture announced that it is extending nationwide waivers for a variety of programs, including the Summer Food Service Program (SFSP) and the Seamless Summer Option (SSO), until December 31, 2020. This flexibility will allow afterschool and summer learning providers to:

- Continue serving meals at no cost to youth throughout the fall
- Permit meals to be served outside of traditionally-required group settings and meal times
- Waive meal pattern requirements
- Allow parents, families, and guardians to pick-up meals for children
