The Afterschool Workforce

Factors Impacting Ability to Stay in Roles

Afterschool Jobs & the Pandemic

The field has experienced the following concerns during the pandemic:

say the pandemic has affected their burnout

Afterschool Staff Turnover

The largest reasons cited for professionals leaving the workforce are compensation and burnout

62% of programs state that the pandemic has affected staff retention

67% of programs state that turnover has affected programming

Crisis in the Afterschool Workforce One-Pager

ACT Now developed a one-pager on the data collected from the field to help our members advocate. This resource may be leveraged in conversations with funders, elected officials, state agencies, and within one's own organization.

You can access this document on our website AND by clicking the link, below

Our Recommendations

- More advance communication about grant competitions and continuations for programs to reassure staff about sustainability
- Increased per award amounts
- Salary guidelines in NOFOs to ensure livable wages
- Require plans to address staff mental health needs in grant awards
- Training on how to create a culture of support in programs
- Increased investment in the future employment pipeline for afterschool
- Loan repayment and tuition support for the afterschool workforce
